To the Music Lover

HERE they are—all under one cover—a band, two hundred strong, of songs which immortalize the joys of home, the happiness of lovers, the innocence of children, the patriotism of nations, the romances of opera, the faith of religion, and shed a brighter lustre on every phase of our existence. Whether your mood be sad or glad, whether you wish to play or sing, "Songs The Whole World Sings" has within it—waiting your call—all those priceless gems of song which have been bequeathed us by our forefathers, and which it shall be our sweetest pleasure to entrust to the loving care of future generations.

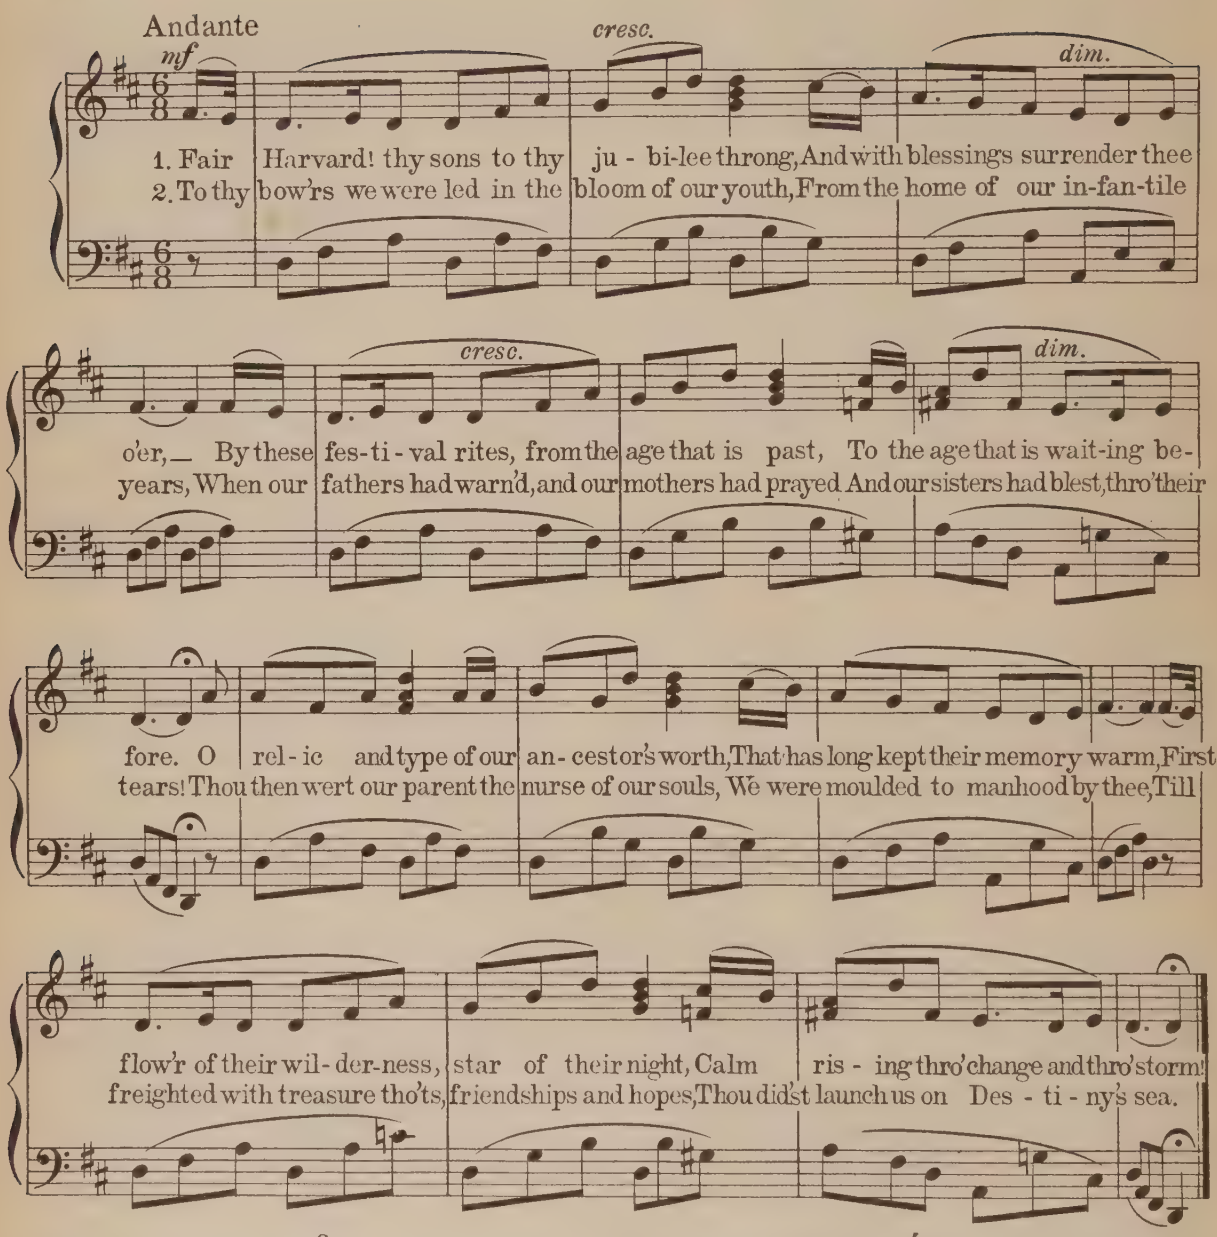
Fair Harvard



Andante

dim.
1. Fair Harvard! thy sons to thy ju - bi-lee throng, And with blessings surrender thee
2. To thy bow'rs we were led in the bloom of our youth, From the home of our in-fan-tile o'er,— By these fes-ti-val rites, from the age that is past, To the age that is wait-ing be-years, When our fathers had warn'd, and our mothers had prayed And our sisters had blest, thro' their fore. O rel-ic and type of our an-cestor's worth, That has long kept their memory warm, First tears! Thou then wert our parent the nurse of our souls, We were moulded to manhood by thee, Till flow'r of their wil-der-ness, star of their night, Calm ris - ing thro' change and thro' storm!
freighted with treasure tho'ts, friendships and hopes, Thou didst launch us on Des - ti - ny's sea.

3.

When, as pilgrims, we come to revisit thy halls,
To what kindlings the season gives birth
Thy shades are more soothing, thy sunlight more dear,
Than descend on less privileged earth;
For the good and the great in their beautiful prime,
Through thy precincts have musingly trod;
As they girded their spirits or deepened the streams
That make glad the fair city of God.

4.

Farewell, be thy destinies onward and bright
To thy children the lesson still give,
With freedom to think, and with patience to bear,
And for right ever bravely to live.
Let not moss-covered error moor thee at its side,
As the world on truth's current glides by;
Be the herald of light, and the bearer of love
Till the stock of the Puritans die.
